PRESS RELEASE

November 6, 2017

At 1:08 am a male subject entered the Casey's General Store, located at 325 West Main St. with multiple stab wounds about his body. Responding Officers administered first aid until DUNN's ambulance arrived. The male was taken to Carlinville Area Hospital where he was later transferred to a Springfield hospital.

Officer's responded to an address in the 700 block of South Locust St. where they made contact with a male and female who had blood on and about their persons. After further investigation a search warrant was applied for and granted for the property. The Carlinville Police Department and the Illinois State Police are continuing to investigate the scene.

More information will be released as it becomes available.
